AN INTRODUCTION TO THE HOSTEL

The Geetanjali Hostel for women provides residence to full-time women students of the South Campus, University of Delhi.

This includes post-graduate students and research scholars of the South Campus.

The primary objective of the hostel management is to provide a comfortable and homely stay to the residents and encourage intellectual stimulation and cross-cultural interaction. The students are highly encouraged to participate and initiate various activities and programs.

Being a residence of post-graduate students, the freedom enjoyed by the students is more than that of under-graduate hostels in the hostel comes with attached responsibility to adhere to the existing rules and regulations, ensure safety of other residents and assist the administration for a smooth functioning.

For all practical and administrative purposes, the Provost is the administrative head of the Hostel. For internal administration and day-to-day discipline, the Warden and Resident Tutor (if any) may assist her.

We consider the hostel as a family consisting of residents, staff and hostel management. It's for this reason, this hostel is often called 'a home away from home'.

ADVISORY FOR INCOMING AND OUTGOING STUDENTS

INFORMATION FOR INCOMING STUDENTS

This information is to facilitate shifting to the hostel comfortably. The hostel provides basic furniture however a number of items need to be carried by the incoming students. Many students go to the nearest local market and arrange for these, however often students come at night and are left unprepared. Therefore, it is highly recommended that students speak to the hostel Housekeeper to prepare for coming to the hostel

A basic list of items that you need to bring with you are also listed here:

- Bedsheets and toiletries
- Your personal clothes and towels
- Bucket and Mug
- Bed mattress and pillow
- Air cooler
- Basic utensils, if needed (mess utensils cannot be carried to room)
- One lock (to be shared with room-mate)

In the room, the hostel provides bed, curtains, chair, table almirah space, rack and cloth drying stand.

INFORMATION FOR OUTGOING STUDENTS

The students are requested to completely vacate the room at the time of leaving. All items that have been bought by the resident should be taken with them. Especially the mattress, since usually students do not use second hand mattress and the hostel does not have space to store used ones. Hostel owned furniture and furnishings need to be returned in good condition, as issued
